Summary 1

Rahul Sharma completed a Loan Against Property eligibility screening and qualified for the next step. He owns a solely owned residential property with original documents, seeks ₹30 lakh against an estimated ₹60 lakh value, is salaried with salary credited to a bank account, and prefers a 10-year tenure; a senior loan expert will contact him.

Summary 2

Rahul confirmed interest in a Loan Against Property and stated he owns a jointly owned residential property with original documents available. He requested a ₹90 lakh loan but declined to proceed when informed the offer was capped at ₹75 lakh.

Summary 3

Spoke with Rahul Sharma, who confirmed it was a convenient time. He owns agricultural land, which is not eligible for the Loan Against Property offer, so the call was ended.

Summary 4

Rahul Sharma confirmed he owns a solely owned residential property with original documents and seeks a ₹30 lakh loan. He is self-employed but receives business income in cash, so he was disqualified because the offer requires bank-received income.

Summary 5

Reached Rahul Sharma, who said he was busy and requested a callback after one hour. The agent scheduled a callback for around 8:30 PM today.
